

Appl. No. : 10/674,848
Filed : September 29, 2003

SUMMARY OF INTERVIEW

Applicants thank the Examiner for the in-person interview granted to Applicants' Representative, Mincheol Kim, Reg. No. 51,306, in the captioned application on March 5, 2008.

Exhibits and/or Demonstrations

None.

Identification of Claims Discussed

Claims 21, 24, 29 and 35.

Identification of Prior Art Discussed

Rajakarunananyake et al. (US 6,810,413, hereinafter "Rajak").

Proposed Amendments

During the discussion, the Examiner and Applicants' Representative discussed various features of the invention to include in the independent claims to further clarify the operations of the claimed methods and their context. Applicants have accommodated the Examiner's comments and incorporated such features into the claims as set forth in the claim amendments.

Principal Arguments and Other Matters

Applicants' Representative provided the Examiner with the background and operations of the claimed invention, which involves a content providing server, a multicast box, a local DSL device and one or more user terminals. Applicants' Representative submitted that Claim 21 is directed to the operations and actions occurring only in a user terminal; Claim 29 is directed to the operations and actions occurring only in another user terminal; and Claim 35 is directed to the operations and actions occurring only in the multicast box.

Applicants' Representative submitted that in order for Rajak to properly anticipate the claimed invention, Rajak's components and their interconnection and interaction must show the exact features recited in the claims; however Rajak does not teach or suggest the claimed features of interconnection and interactions among a user terminal, a local DSL device connecting or

Appl. No. : 10/674,848
Filed : September 29, 2003

linking the user terminal to the Internet, a multicast box configured to relay data from a content providing server to the user terminal.

Results of Interview

The Examiner will reconsider the application and claims when Applicants submit claim amendments with a Request for Continued Examination.